POLICY FOR PRE-FUNDED INSTRUMENTS/ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS

Objective:

The objective of the policy is to prevent acceptance of third party funds and to prescribe process to deal with instruments issued by third party when received.

Background:

SEBI vide Circular No. SEBI/MRD/SE/Cir-33/2003/27/08 dt 27th Aug 2003, has specified that the stock brokers can accept demand drafts from their clients. However, SEBI vide Circular No.CIR/MIRSD/03/2011 DT June, 9, 2011, and National Stock Exchange vide its Circular NBo.NSE/INSP/18024 dt 9th June 2011, has advised stock brokers to maintain an audit trail while receiving funds from the clients through Demand Draft(DD)/Pay Order(PO)/Bankers Cheque(BC) since such third party pre-paid instruments do not contain the details like name of the client, bank account number are not mentioned on such instruments. Non maintenance of audit trail may result in flow of third party funds or unidentified money which may result into breach of regulations issued under PMLA and SEBI regulations.

Terms used in this Policy:

1. Prefunded Instruments – Referred as Pay order, Demand Draft, Bankers cheque etc
2. Electronic Fund Transfers – Referred as transfer of funds using net banking

Policy:

SEBI vide Circular No. SEBI/MRD/SE/Cir-33/2003/27/08 dt 27th Aug 2003, has specified that the stock brokers can accept demand drafts from their clients. However, SEBI vide Circular No.CIR/MIRSD/03/2011 DT June, 9, 2011, the following needs to be complied.

1. “Pre-paid Instrument received register” with columns for date, name of the client, amount, instrument Drawn on (Bank name) and such other columns as found necessary shall be maintained. The register may be maintained either in physical form or in electronic form.
- 2.Pre-paid instruments of the value of less than Rs.50,000 may be accepted from the client. Whenever such instruments are received, entry in “pre-paid instruments Received Register” shall be made,
- 3.If the pre-paid instrument of the value more than Rs.50,000 or if the aggregate value of pre-funded instrument is Rs.50,000 or more per day per client is presented for acceptance, such or instruments may be accepted only if the same is/are accompanied by the name of the bank account holder and number of the bank account debited for the purpose, duly certified by the issuing bank. The more of certification may include the following:
 - a) Certificate from the issuing bank or its letter head or on a plain paper with the seal of the issuing bank.
 - b) Certified copy of the requisition slip (portion which is retained by the bank) to issue the instrument.

- c) Certified copy of the passbook/bank statement for the account debited to issue the instrument
- d) Authentication of the bank account-number debited and name of the account holder by the issuing bank of the reverse of the instrument.

4.If a client submits pre-paid instruments at different times during the day, details and certificates as stated above may be collected along with the instrument with which the aggregate value of pre-paid instruments submitted exceeds Rs.50,000 for that date.

5. In case of any receipt of funds by way of Electronic Fund Transfer, an audit trail to ensure that funds are received from the respective client only has to be ascertained. Necessary details may be collected from banker at which the amount is received.

6.If the pre-paid instrument is received through post or any other method where client does not directly interface for submission of the instrument and the instrument does not contain the information as required above, the following action may be taken:

- Contact the client immediately and seek information. Not to bank the instrument until the information given by the client is in order.
- If the Pre-paid instrument is bank transfer, contact banker immediately for the details; not utilize the amount so credited until the details are received and not to give credit to the customer until bankers give the details/certification.

7. While giving credit to respective client's ledger, Head Office needs to cross check/verify that such instrument is received from respective clients' account.
